Mathias Jackai Kange is a member of the Cameroon RECLAIM Project team. He is the Co-inclusion manager and in charge of facilitating strategic partnerships. He also supports multi stakeholder engagement in climate resilience education. Currently, Mathias Kange is Head of Service for Extra-African Cooperation, a position he has held since 2013. With over 22 years of experience as an administrative staff in the University of Buea, including 13 years of service at the international office, he negotiates, coordinates, and manages both national/international partnerships, cooperation agreements, institutional and ERASMUS+ mobility agreements alongside mentorships with the greatest objective of fulfilling the tripartite mission (Teaching, Research and Outreach) of the University of Buea for a greater visibility. He earned a Masters in Public administration and is keen on Public Private Partnerships and their role in Service delivery.
