

Contact

PROFESSOR ENDELEY MARGARET NALOVA

Dean, Faculty of Education, University of Buea, Cameroon

Email: endeley.margaret@ubuea.cm

Tel: 237677875283

Professor Endeley Margaret Nalova She oversees Quality Assurance in the RECLAIM project in the University of Buea, Cameroon. She is a distinguished female Cameroonian professor of Curriculum and Instruction, currently serving as the Dean of the Faculty of Education, University of Buea. With 32 years of experience in teaching, she has contributed significantly to curriculum development, teacher education and pedagogy in Cameroon. Professor Endeley holds a diploma in English Modern Letters, a Bachelor's degree in English Modern Letters, a Master's degree and a PhD in Curriculum and Instruction. She has taught across levels, from secondary to Higher Education, supervised many master's and PhD theses, published extensively and co-authored two books namely, 'Perspectives in Curriculum Studies' and 'General Pedagogy: A Guide to Effective Teaching.' Her research areas include curriculum development, pedagogy, inclusive education, teacher education and peace education which is the area she is currently working on. Beyond her teaching roles she has been actively involved in educational leadership. Presently President of the Cameroon Association for Curriculum and Evaluation and President of the Scientific Council of the Advisory Committee of the University Institutions in Cameroon. She is also an Education consultant to some international organizations.