

Dr. Emmanuel Adjei-Boateng – Academic and Professional Profile

Dr. Emmanuel Adjei-Boateng is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Educational Studies and Leadership, School of Education and Leadership, University of Ghana. He previously served as the Coordinator for the Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) Programmes at the University. He holds a Ph.D. in Teaching and Learning with a specialization in Teacher Education, a Master of Education in Elementary Education, a Master of Arts in Human Rights Education, and a Bachelor of Education in Social Studies. His scholarly and professional work emphasizes learner-centered pedagogy, technology-enhanced learning, reflective practice, and the integration of equity and social justice principles into teaching and learning. He has published extensively in international journals and contributes to curriculum development, postgraduate supervision, and education policy initiatives. In the RECLAIM Project, Dr. Emmanuel Adjei-Boateng brings expertise in curriculum development, diversity and inclusion, learner support, teaching and learning, and teacher education. He is a member of the University of Ghana Team.